

Hello Parents!

I'm your music teacher, Miss Chantal! I've been at Joyful Noise for about nine years. For the first four years, I taught as a preschool teacher and music teacher. For the last five, I've taught music and been a member of our support staff! I currently work in the office two days a week and also run the Joyful Noise Website.

As a musician, my background includes more than twenty years of formal training, private instruction, and teaching infants through adulthood for about 13 years! I play many instruments, with my two masters being flute and guitar. I also teach private piano lessons and play several other instruments. I love to sing as well!

I am currently a student, finishing my Bachelor's Degree. My fiancé and I have been together for 15 years and have lived in the Muskegon area for about ten of those years. Our son, Emmett, attends Joyful Noise on the days that I am working and teaching here!

I'm so pleased to be working with your child! Please check back with my blog frequently for weekly updates on what we've learned. I will also be posting fun things you can do at home, and providing free downloads! Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have at MissChantal@JoyfulNoiseKids.com, and stay musical!

In His Service,

Miss Chantal
