Meet Miss Jenna

Name: Jenna McKervey

Position: Lead Toddler Teacher

Starting Date at Joyful Noise: August 6th 2024

Degree and Experience:
Attending Muskegon Community College to obtain my Child Development Associates and Associates Degree in Early Childhood Education.

A Little About Miss Jenna: I was born and raised in Cheboygan, Michigan. I am a single mother to my fourteen-year-old daughter, Amiah. My family is my strength and my foundation. My daughter and I moved to Muskegon, Michigan in the summer of 2024. I am the youngest of three sisters. I have ten nieces and nephews who call me Auntie J.
Family is my greatest weakness, my best love and my strength.
Music is my therapy.
Dancing is my joy.
Snowboarding is my release.

Miss Jenna's Teaching Philosophy: My journey in childcare stems from my own life lessons and experiences. Becoming a mother has been my greatest inspiration. Teaching and guiding children has always been a blessing and nothing less than a natural instinct. I believe the best I can do as a teacher is continue to give to these children what doesn't cost anything at all.
Love, patience, guidance, and support.
