A Little About Miss Kristen: "I am a huge cat lover! I live in Muskegon, Michigan with my husband Alex, my seven cats, and my axolotl Rose. My cats' names are Toby, Logan, Charlie, Chowder, Jango, Boba, and Owen. My husband and I love to watch fantasy shows and movies together like Star Wars and Avatar. I have many siblings, but I spend the most time with my sister Ally. I enjoy fishing, bowling, disc golf, yoga, running, and hiking. I also love to paint, draw, crochet, and bake. I'm always looking for more hobbies and activities to try!"

Miss Kristen's Teaching Philosophy: "I believe that every child should be treated as capable and unique people. Children understand so much more than we may realize, and they can quickly surprise us with their abilities. Every day I spend with children I am amazed at how quickly they learn and adapt to their world. Children are sponges absorbing everything they see and hear around them. It's our job as educators to foster this innate love of learning and to expand their world and offer them new experiences to explore."
